Our Purpose Why we're here

Our Outcomes What do we want to see

Our Impacts
What have we achieved

Our Outputs

What does that look like

Providers are well supported

Sustainable solutions in strategic negotiations and evidence-informed funding

Successful partnerships and alliances with related organisations

Media opportunities.

Representation of employers in meetings including prior pay equity project meetings

Representation of providers for strategic partnership in the Home & Community Support Sector Joint Working Group, Disability Support Services CEO forum and Tripartite meetings.

Raising the profile and strengthening key Ministerial relationships

Productive engagement with decision-makers including Minister and senior advisors

Members are fully informed

Addressing all relevant matters, with a focus on quality and sustainability

Balanced comms and media for our sector

Over 17% increase in Government strategic engagement

Ministerial meetings have risen from 4 last year to 34 this year, representing a 750% increase and evidencing a substantial uplift in engagement.

With 133 member emails, 12 newsletters, 15 submissions, 36 events, 6 site visits, impactful social media and powerful press releases showing the major increase in profile.

Partnerships and research that can be used to improve and inform services

Gain insights from international sources

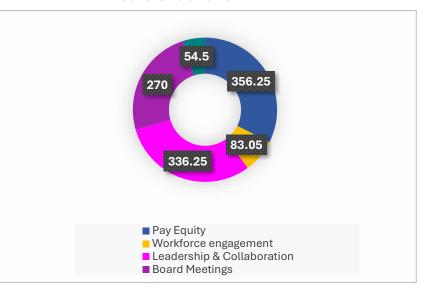

Promotion of technology and resources to support services

Key partners: InterRAI research group, Te Tāhū Hauora, HQSC HCSS client experience survey, Health Informatics New Zealand (HiNZ)

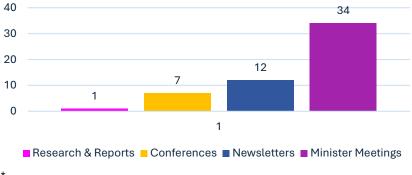

Ageing Australia – insights and learnings from model and legislative changes

Empowering professionals with webinars and details of cutting-edge tech, key research and education on sector topics

Hours Undertaken

Core Activities

*